Choose by how many people will use it, not by the size of your organisation. Office hours are one hour sessions with an inclusion expert, shared across your organisation. Add users at any time at your pack's price per user, or move up a pack at renewal. Individual memberships are also available from £345 a year.

WHERE THE BUDGET CAN COME FROM

Learning and development · People and culture · Leadership development · Onboarding · Employee engagement

Most organisations fund this from existing learning, people or onboarding budgets, not a separate inclusion line. One membership covers your team's development and your new starters' onboarding, so it often replaces costs you already have.
